WARSAW, May 21.—Information indicating some elements in Germany are determined to help the Russian Bolsheviks continue to be received here, it is said in military circles. The latest report is regarding Upper Silesia where German armed forces have been assembling on the border of the plebiscite areas. Newspapers here today published prominently dispatches stating that the security guards have arrived in Upper Silesia by special train. For weeks, it claimed, Germans have been hauling ammunition into Silesia. Military authorities say the Germans are advertising the troop movement in this region for the purpose of compelling the Poles to transfer forces from the east and thus weaken the Bolshevik front. "Warsaw papers recently printed a report that eight Zeppelins had crossed the Polish front, bound eastward and army headquarters confirmed the information. There is much speculation as to whether the Zeppelins bore of German aircraft or are carrying away men named for extradition by the Allies.

DIRECTORS OF COUNTY SCHOOLS FAVOR $5 TAX

Its Collection as Means of Meeting Added Expenses Advocated.

LARGER SALARIES COMING

A resolution endorsing the plan to establish a maximum $5 occupational tax was endorsed at a special meeting of the Fayette County School Directors' association, held in the courthouse in Uniontown yesterday afternoon. The meeting was attended by school directors and interested educators from various parts of the county.

The present system of taxation is the valuation placed on a taxpayer's occupation. Authority granted under recent legislation gives school boards the right to assess a $5 occupational tax on all taxpayers. This the directors are in favor of collecting.

Another resolution passed calls for the equalization of property assessments at their real value. The valuation under which the taxes are now levied vary greatly.

Discussion of the teacher problem brought out the fact that most school boards in the county will increase the salary scale for the 1920-1921 term. Some of the boards indicate that the increase would run from $20 to $25 per month while others will be increased $10 per month. Districts near the larger population centers have an abundance of applications of teachers for the coming term but the same shortage exists in the rural schools with which the educators have contended for the past two years. County Superintendent John S. Carroll stated, however, that the rural teacher shortage would not be greater next year than for the term just closed.

The legislative department of the association was created at an executive session following the general meeting. O. W. Brownfield of Fairchance was made head of this branch. He will appoint four other members. The association also determined to enforce the ruling requiring teachers to register their certificates with the county superintendent of schools at the opening of the term.

An endeavor will be made to have the work completed and the gas supply from West Virginia turned back into the line by 3 o'clock. The supply to factories, public buildings and stores should be shut off after business hours Saturday night or early Sunday morning. The offices of the company will be open Sunday afternoon to give information concerning the work on the line.

DAVID C. BRUNER

Soon after leaving the West Penn car barns, where he was employed, David C. Bruner, 53 years old, was stricken with apoplexy and died almost instantly. Mr. Bruner worked Thursday morning and after eating his lunch made the remark to one of the workmen that he was not feeling well and believed that he would go home. He had just gone a short distance when he was stricken.

Mr. Bruner was born in this state February 2, 1857. Following the death of his parents, which occurred when he was about eight years old, he lived with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harper of Dunbar township until he was about 16 years old, when he left for Kansas. After spending sometime there he located in Galveston, Tex. He returned to Conneltsville last January and was employed as a carpenter at the West Penn car barns in Greenwood. He roomed at the West Side hotel for a short time. A little over a week ago he was discharged from the Uniontown hospital, where he received medical treatment. Little is known of Mr. Bruner's children. He had two sons killed in France. He was a member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of Conneltsville.

THE WAR ON HIGH PRICES.

The price-cutting movement which started in Philadelphia is apparently gaining momentum as it reaches out over various sections of the country. Just at this time it seems to be the heaviest and most general in the middle west. There it is largely confined to clothing, the reductions having ranged from 20 to 30 and 50 per cent, with some dealers proclaiming their willingness to dispose of their stock at absolute cost rather than assume the risk of carrying it on in the face of the decline in the volume of buying that has set in and the steady trend toward lower prices.

The situation is evidently the result of the change in the attitude of the buying public, not the result of any or all of the so-called efforts by the government or other agencies to reduce the high cost of living. Of one accord buyers have come to an appreciation of the fact that they have been buying too freely and have been also gathering too indifferent to the prices they have been paying. Retail merchants "finding the public has reached the point where it will stand no further continuation of high prices are beginning to realize that the reaction has in fact set in. The tightening of the money market is making it more difficult for some dealers to finance the carrying of large stocks hence the tendency to stimulate sales through reductions in prices.

Thus far the price cutting has not reached foodstuffs. It has been largely confined to men's and women's clothing, shoes, hats and other articles. The public knowledge that the shortage of farm labor is compelling a reduction in acreage planted creates a condition that does not at present insure very material reduction in food prices. People can make clothing, shoes and other articles of wearing apparel serve a trifle longer than they have been accustomed to do before buying new outfits but they cannot apply the same rule to food. In the case of clothing curtailment of buying which is now being practiced, is an effective means of bringing about price reduction. In the case of food, the same can be attained by no other method than increasing the production. In either event the solution of the price problem rests with the people just as unanimity of sentiment and action can bring about an adjustment of public abuses of any kind. In short, industry and thrift still remain the agencies of most potency for affecting a permanent reduction of high living costs.

REDUCING FOREST FIRES

Except those persons whose business or work brings them in contact with the mountain sections of the state comparatively few citizens manifest much concern over the loss and damage arising from forest fires from year to year. Giving little thought or care to the consequences of denuding the mountain areas of forest growth the general public is not greatly moved by the appeals of the Department of Forestry, makes at intervals that every possible effort be put forth by every agency and individual to prevent forest fires.

It is to be expected, however, that officials charged with the oversight of affairs affecting the material interests of the people should pay close heed to the warnings and requests of the department. Very destructive fires having occurred this spring Forester Pinchot has directed the attention of the county commissioners to the necessity of taking active steps to cooperate with the fire wardens in fighting the fires. Some of those having been of reputed incendiary origin the county commissioners are further urged to see that the peace officers apprehend and bring to justice persons guilty of starting such fires.

Vigorous measures of this character would no doubt do much to lessen the number of fires. But they are not always of incendiary origin. Frequently they start from sparks emitted by passing locomotives and perhaps more frequently are due to the criminal negligence or carelessness by hunters and other frequenters of the woods. Failing to take proper precautions for the complete extinguishment after having served the purpose of preparing a meal, the fire is communicated to the dry leaves and in a short time spreads over a large area leaving acres of barren land in its path.

Request has been made of the railroad that they arrange for the removal of all trees or a distance of 100 feet on each side of their tracks in the wooded sections in order to avoid the dangers of fire from locomotive sparks. This would eliminate one possible source of fires but the careless and thoughtless traveler of the woods and the fire bug would still remain. The former if not susceptible to appeals, ought to be brought within the reach of the law while the latter should be made to feel its full weight.

Look for another advance in the price of sugar. Attorney General Palmer and the sugar manufacturers are holding another conference.

One more day of clean up week will give you a chance to keep your record clean.

Why don't you bring in some of the big fellows who are responsible for the wholesale distribution of liquor? was the very pertinent question Judge W. H. S. Thompson of the United States District Court in Pittsburgh addressed to the agents of the government charged with the enforcement of the Volstead Act. These are the fellows who should be arrested was the judge's observation. But in answer to his question comes the echo "Why?"

If the Federal Reserve Board's request to banks for the thawing out of frozen loans is fully complied with, isn't there danger some of the profiteers will in turn be frozen out?

Government Is Monopolizing Money

Manufacturers Record

The market is good for bond issues by states or their instrumentalities and the reason is that such securities are tax-free. There is no power in the federal government to levy imposts on them. This vindicates the wisdom of the founders of this government, who appear marvelously to have anticipated the encroachments of the federal organization on the rights of the localities.

It is a favorable influence of very great importance that the campaign for "road building" all over the Union should be facilitated by this peculiar situation existing in the money market; but paralleling it is a corresponding stringency in money for other purposes. The building program, for instance is far behind and it is due to the inability of builders to finance operations. Equally difficult is it for public utilities and other companies to refund their bond issues. There rises up against them an unscalable wall in the form of excess profits taxes and confiscatory surtaxes. Men with surplus incomes to invest are virtually compelled to invest in tax-free securities or be deprived of any return. In many cases it is necessary for the investor to receive a return of from 10 to 16 per cent in order to secure a net return of 3 1/2 per cent.

The result is that government—meaning government in all its several forms—is taking a huge part of the capital and income of the nation and thus hampering private enterprise in every direction. We do not have outright nationalization but we come close to its equivalent when the government monopolizes the national resources of wealth and credit.

There is no joy in being maled. The reason for acquiescence is one of the controlling factors in progress. Men work for the joy of the working. It is true but the vast majority of mere human beings like to reap the rewards of their labor. When they are forewarned that the rewards will be taken from them they lose spirit. It could not be otherwise.

It costs two millions—more than two millions—every work hour of the day simply to keep the Washington government in operation. How much more it costs the states and municipalities, the county and the country machines to run we do not know but the total must be enormous. And the purpose of all this government and governing is to enable men to pursue their peaceful vocations without violent or undue disturbance. Passing over the question of whether that protection is given, the simple fact remains that in addition to this cost, government is now demanding and getting a first call on the available credits of the nation. That floating debt for instance, which the treasury insisted on having instead of making full provision for war costs by bonds is keeping the banks in hot water and penalizing business men everywhere.

Some relief can be given, by amendment and revision of the existing iniquitous taxing system a wasteful and extravagant thing which few wise men praise and many demagogues exploit. But instead of Congress undertaking to afford that relief, it is engaged in a prodigious political battle to buy votes and the demagogues are outdoing one another in their efforts to penalize the rich and let the poor go free.

Is it not about time to tell the truth? No man who knows anything at all about taxation has real belief that formulae can take taxes from the backs of the people and load them on the shoulders of the few. It is not legal in this country, in the first place and in the second place it just can not be done. The only effect of all the subterfuges is ultimately to increase the burden on the poor. The consumer as a matter of fact is paying about five times the tax under the present system that the government is collecting. That is the kind of taxation waste that sends prices up and it is the kind of taxation too that dooms empires.

If there is a panic in this country as some fear and others advocate it will be man-made. There has been more than one Garden of Eden which the foolishness of man has destroyed. If this country in the full flush of a magnificent prosperity abandoning all the factors that make for prosper except humility and deep consciousness of duty is driven to the wall there will be one reason for it and one reason only and that will be the blindness or insincerity of those responsible for the laws and the policies of the government.

At the Theatres

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE FLAME OF HELL GATE"
With Beatriz Michelena in the leading role, and the fifth chapter of "The Silent Avenger," starring William Duncan, are today's feature attractions.

THE SOISSON.

"THE SILVER HORDE"—By Rex Beach, starring R. D. MacLennan and other stars of prominence, is being presented today.

The story fairly pulsates with the spirit of indomitable courage and daring which mark those who defy the ruggedness of the north and the vicious elements it breeds in the struggle for existence. The cast is made up of players of excellent types, all equal in ability to present true characterizations.

Most of the action revolves about the parts played by Myrtle Stodman, Robert McKim, Betty Blythe, Curtis Cooksey and Frederick Stanton, players popular with lovers of the screen, who put many thrills and a great deal of romance into the fight waged by the trust interests against the independent faction for a monopoly of the salmon canning industry in Alaska.

Rex Beach journeyed to the northwest with Director Frank Lloyd and the cast for the exterior scenes made in that location, and rendered much assistance in keeping the action realistic and in harmony with his visualization of the story he wrote.

The Ultrona

The Ultrona—a new day creation—is a tone arm adapted to playing any make of record.

It is oval in shape and made entirely of rare moulded hollyhock.

By it, sound waves are projected into full rounded tones—tones that are richer and more natural.

CONNELLSVILLE'S BALL SEASON WILL OPEN ON SATURDAY, FIELD READY

Independents Will First Test Strength With Johnny Yoedt's Team.

BATTERIES KEPT IN DARK

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 the opening game of the official baseball season of this city will take place at Fayette Field. After a long lay-off of a number of years the fans are anxious to see some first class baseball. This is evidenced by the support accorded the newly organized independent team, which will be this city's representative team in big time baseball. From present indications the opening game will be played under auspicious circumstances. The independents will start the season with the fast Fairbanks team of Pittsburgh. This team is under the management of Johnny Yoedt, the former Coker pitcher, who is favorably known in this vicinity. Johnny has assembled a strong team again this season and is quite enthused over the players he has signed. His third baseman, Bayster, is slugging the ball in great style; Crawford, in middle field, is all that Yoedt predicted of him; Peiter, at short, although a youngster, is playing great ball, and Luther and Jacobs added to the team has developed a world of strength. Johnny is keeping his battery dark, as he wants to pull a surprise on the fans and team when his aggregation trots on the field.

When the independents center over the diamond the make-up of the team will undoubtedly stir favorable comment and will be a revelation to the many fans who will be at the opener. In Walter Moody they have a sterling player. Moody all along has been mentioned to play in the outer garden. He is the player who, with "Buster" Caton, now with the Pirates, fought it out to see who was the choice to sign with the major team. "Buster" need not wait for a short margin. Moody's position is at third base, where he has played wonderful ball. Andy Getzie, a player well and favorably known to all fans, will be another infielder, along with "Pike" Henry at second. In tomorrow's game the infield should read: Smiley, at first; Henry, at second; Getzie, at short, and Moody, third. This is an infield that will compare with the very best of teams. Of the outer garden plenty of material looms up to give any team a bunch of trouble to beat.

This region is amply taken care of by Chip Francis at middle, Amie Frazier in right, and the left field is a choice between several good boys who showed they could play ball in Wednesday evening's game. There were Cover and Pesek, two dandy players, who have not been at all mentioned in the independents' prospective players. Cover showed that he is a good fielder and is known as a consistent hitter. Pesek is a boy who not only fields well but is there with the stick work. Either or both may be the choice to work in Saturday's game. For a catcher the independents have a star in little Tom Jones. There is no need to mention his playing record, as all know that he has no equal in this section of the state.

Regarding the pitching department, like Johnny Yoedt, the independents have been working over a well-known slab artist, whose name will cause quite a stir when the umpire announces the local battery. This bird is not only there with a reputation, but is more than there in delivering the goods. Aside from the pitcher who is under wraps, they will have another equally as good on the bench.

With favorable weather predicted, the field in first-class condition, the big item which the club worked so hard for—seats—completed, and a backup for players' benches, there is no question but that a monster crowd of fans will be on hand to wish the independents a world of luck in the starting of their season. The rain that fell yesterday helped materially to better the condition of the diamond, as it has brought to the surface all the small stones. These were swept up and then the roller used on the entire field, putting Fayette Field in far better condition than it has ever been known to be in.

TROTTER SHUTS OUT MONARCH

The Trotter team easily defeated the highly touted Monarch nine of Leisenring No. 3 yesterday afternoon at Trotter by the score of 11-0. The tossing of the ball by nearly every player of the Monarch team was wild, causing many runs for the Trotter team. That the Trotter boys are playing first class ball may be judged from the fact that Monarch recently defeated York Run, 19-5.

BASEBALL CHIRPS

The game between Leisenring No. 1 and No. 3 was canceled for today.

Another practice for the independent players is set to take place this evening at 5 o'clock at Fayette Field. All players are requested to report in uniform.

Eddie Wall, the umpire, is requested to get in touch with the sport editor some time during the day or this evening—a matter of importance.

WORKS HARD TO AVERT FLU EPIDEMIC

Government and City Health Officials Warn People to Keep Clean.

Stay Away from People with Coughs and Colds

"Avoid crowds if you want to avoid influenza," says Association for Improving the Conditions of New York.

Keep your hands clean, drink plenty of fresh water; sleep with windows open; eat three uniform meals a day including a good breakfast.

People who have catarrh or frequent colds invite influenza, declares a prominent Kentucky druggist.

The membrane of the throat and nose is raw, sore and tender, and makes a lovely abiding place for germs to thrive and multiply.

He advises an inexpensive home-made remedy that will bring relief in less than a day and will stop all discharges and sooths and heal the inflamed membrane in a few days.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Four three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arzene into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat clean and healthy.

Nearly all druggists dispense Mentholized Arzene in vials containing exactly three-quarters of an ounce, which is all you need to make a pint of this healthful medicine.

GRIT AND AMBITION WIN OUT FOR WHEAT

Brooklyn Outfielder Not Satisfied to Sit on Bench.

Greenhorn From South Told President Ebbets He Wanted Opportunity to Play or Would Pay His Fare Back to Mobile.

The dean of the Brooklyn Dodgers is Zack Wheat, who was acquired by Brooklyn from Mobile of the Southern league, by purchase for $1,200 on August 29, 1920, but there is a player on the team whose connection with Brooklyn antedates Wheat's. He is El Myers of East Liverpool, who was sold to the Dodgers by Connellsville of the Pennsylvania and West Virginia league for $300 on August 2, 1920, 27 days before little was known of Wheat. But Wheat is entitled to the dealership. He has an unbroken record for service from the fall of 1909, while Myers was lowered in rank frequently.

Had Myers shown the same aggressive spirit and taken baseball as seriously as Wheat did when he broke into the big show in the fall of 1909, his record for continuous service might tip Zack's. Harry Lumley then was manager of the Dodgers and when Wheat reported from Mobile he was assigned to a position on the bench. Wiping up the kid, it is called. But this kind of jumping made no hit with the greenhorn from the south. The Dodgers of that period were not much of a ball club—they were known far and wide as a joy club. The team was going bad, the outfield where Wheat thought he belonged, in particular. Standing their pitiful efforts in the field and at the bat as long as he could, Wheat felt the restraint on himself break. Murching himself to the office of President Ebbets, after a glaring rank exhibition he is said to have greeted his new boss thus: "Say, Mr. Ebbets, I came here to get in your outfield and I want a chance to land there. If I can't do better than any of that gang playing out here for Lumley, I'll pay my own way back to Mobile."

Wheat's grit and ambition made a hit with Ebbets. The next day Zack got his opportunity. The rest is history.

Furniture, Rugs, Stoves WHY? WHY? 20% DISCOUNT

The object of this Sale is to lend the influence of this store to bring about a readjustment and lowering of prices in all lines of merchandise.

Wholesale costs have not been reduced in our lines—the sacrifice in price during this Sale is made by us, from our profits. In many instances the net price (including store cost of operating expense) is less than we are able to replace the same article today. Nevertheless we have taken the initiative and we propose to go through with it.

We hope that other merchants, as well as those selling Furniture and Carpets, will follow the same course of reducing prices to the benefit of the public.

We feel that the initiative must come from the merchants and that it will eventually compel wholesalers and manufacturers to lower prices.

BEGINNING today and working until Wednesday of next week the shareholders of the Connellsville Oil & Drilling Company, along with several business men of this city will try to see every one possible and give all the opportunity to invest in the unsold portion of the company's shares. It will be impossible to see every one as is desired and it would be well for those that find it convenient to phone their subscriptions to the company's office, Title & Trust Building, or call in person at McDonald's Music Store, or 301 Title & Trust Building, where they will receive their allotment. We make this suggestion as the unsold portion of the company's shares is limited and the men back of the company are anxious that it may not be said that anyone did not have an opportunity to get in or that control was in the hands of a few men.

The Company's assets are conservatively estimated at ten thousand dollars in equipment alone, which is approximately one fifth of the capital stock paid in, or $2 a share. In case the wells should prove to be non productive a pro. rata distribution of the assets will be made.

This development of what appears to be a field favorable for exploitation is in fact a community enterprise. If it succeeds it will tend to enrich every property-holder in the community and it will give Connellsville a new life. Aside from the chance for success, it is good civic business to assist in making this development. The Capitalization is very low, and even a small shareholder will find his investment surprisingly profitable should oil or gas be found. No man can tell in advance what is in the depth of the ground, but millions have been made by investing in the hidden wealth of the mine and the well. Because of the low capitalization of the Connellsville Oil & Drilling Company, only fifty-five thousand dollars being issued, the discovery of oil or gas east of the city would be a money maker to every man holding even a very few shares of stock at the par value of ten dollars a share.

See Eczema Disappear!

Use Hokara For This and Other Skin Diseases Which Ruin Complexion.

A clean, fair complexion is the most noticeable of woman's charms—look to your skin for your pleasing, healthy appearance. Thousands of people suffer the unbearable itching and thoughts of skin broken out and marred by "eczema." Most folks are even sensitive and embarrassed at their own appearance.

The majority of people trust to time and nature to get rid of their pimples and blemishes just because they dislike to use a greasy, vile-smelling ointment or salve. The treatment that does away with this unpleasantness is the Hokara treatment—modern, effective and pleasant. Does not soil clothing or leave skin greasy.

The power of Hokara to relieve quickly any itching or burning of the skin and to make it soft, white and velvety is almost miraculous.

Minor skin troubles like pimples, blackheads, barber's itch, quickly respond to Hokara. Even the worst cases of eczema, ulcers, salt rheum and chronic skin diseases are successfully treated with Hokara. The marred complexion becomes noticeably less each day, leaving as it fades away a clear, healthy skin.

You can get a liberal jar of Hokara for 35c. Larger sizes 60c and $1.00. Sold on a guarantee and recommended by A. A. Clarke, druggist—Adv.

Here's a chance, Mrs. Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles—Adv.

CEREAL FOODS

Oatmeal bread, when made carefully and well baked, is light and digestible. Roll potatoes to make two cupsful when mashed. Save the water in which they were cooked, and add enough water to make a quart of liquid. Pour this over the potatoes, add two tablespoonfuls of shortening, one tablespoonful of sugar and one of salt. Put the mixture over the heat, and when it boils stir in two cupsful of rolled oats. Let it cook two minutes, then remove and cool. When lukewarm, add one and one-half eggs, cakes dissolved in a quarter of a cupful of lukewarm water, a quarter of a teaspoonful of soda and two quarts of flour. Mix until the dough is smooth. Let it rise over night, and in the morning knead into three loaves, and let rise until light. Bake one and one-quarter hours in a moderate oven.

Oatmeal Cookies.—Beat one egg in a mixing bowl, add one and one-half cupsful of brown sugar, six table-spoonfuls of sweet milk, a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt, three-quarters of a cupful of shortening, one teaspoonful of soda dissolved in one-third of a cupful of cold water, one teaspoonful of vanilla. Stir in two cupsful of flour and two cupsful of rolled oats. Let stand two or three hours to chill before baking. When ready to bake, drop from a spoon onto a greased sheet, leaving place for the cookies to spread. A few raisins and nuts may be added if desired.

Spoon Corn Bread.—Take one cupful each of cornmeal, boiled rice, boiling water. Scald the milk with boiling water, add two cupsful of sweet milk, two eggs, half a teaspoonful of salt, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one teaspoonful of sugar. Bake it in a well greased baking dish and serve from the dish. Serve with the spoon bread, liver and bacon.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows: Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parment (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it 1-1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar, stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. Parment is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective. Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should give this elixir a trial.—Adv.

PESKY BED BUGS

(Ready Dose) Quinine P. D. Q. is a new chemical that puts the crawling to the pesky bedbugs, roaches, fleas, and ticks, and is responsible for the pesky insects to exit where P. D. Q. is used. Recommendations of Hotels, Hospitals, National Composites and other public institutions are a guarantee of the fact that the safest, quickest and most economical way of eradicating the pesky insects is by the use of P. D. Q. as this chemical kills the eggs as well as the live ones, and will not harm the clothing. A few drops of P. D. Q. will kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas or ticks, and also contains a patent agent to put the car parts in the bed to catch them, and more. Special Hospital size $2.50 makes five gallons—contains three gallons—supplied by druggist or sent prepaid with receipt of money, either way, by the Cash Chemical Co., 2200 North, Ind.—never polluted. Sold by Connellsville Drug Company, J. C. Moore and other leading druggists.—Adv.

NAME "BAYER" ON GENUINE ASPIRIN

"Bayer Cross" on Aspirin Like "Sterling" on Silver.

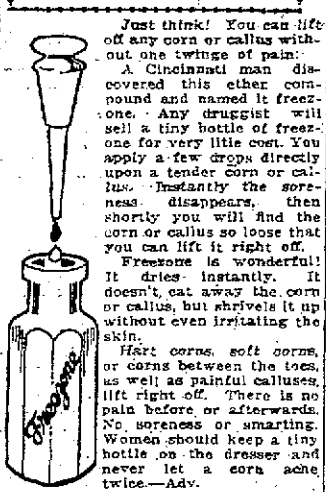

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," marked with the safety "Bayer Cross," can be taken without fear because you are getting the true, world-famous Aspirin, prescribed by physicians for over 18 years. Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which contains proper directions to safely relieve colds, headache, toothache, earache, neuralgia, lumbago, rheumatism, neuritis, joint pains and pain generally. Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger, "Bayer" packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monochloroacetic acid of Salicylic acid.—Adv.

FOR VERY LITTLE PERSONS
Top: Golden yellow, fancy straw is gathered into a button that does double duty and holds on the long blue ribbons. Little flat silk roses grow on each side of the hat.
Below: A pleated trim, peeping from the straw brim, falls streamers of the same material as the crown and the quaint little soft crown itself are all in the making of this rose colored hat. Pink wool stitching covers the seams of the crown.

A Drop On a Touchy Corn

Instant relief! Then corn or callus lifts off with fingers.

Just think! You can lift off any corn or callus without one twinge of pain. A Cincinnati man discovered this either compound and named it Freezone. Any druggist will sell a tiny bottle of Freezone for very little cost. You apply a few drops directly upon a tender corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can lift it right off. Freezone is wonderful! It dries instantly. It doesn't eat away the corn or callus, but shrivels it up without even irritating the skin. Feet corns, soft corns, or corns between the toes, as well as painful calluses, lift right off. There is no pain before or afterwards. No soreness or smarting. Women should keep a tiny bottle on the dresser and never let a corn ache twice.—Adv.

Extremes Meet. Friend—The newspaper critics certainly gave your new play the frosty mitt. Playwright—Yes, but the audience gave it a warm reception. Friend—Is that so? Playwright—It is. They roasted it so fiercely during the third act, we had to run down the asbestos curtain.

OIL TOO SCARCE AND HIGH IN PRICE TO DISPLACE COAL

Geological Survey Councils Against Burning Where Coal Will Serve.

IS NOT TIME TO CHANGE

To Oil Consumption For Steam-Making Purposes; Is Only One-Third as Efficient as Coal When Price is Considered; Losing Oil Reserves.

Fuel oil will not be available in sufficient quantities and at prices economical enough to warrant industrial plants now employing coal as a principal fuel to convert to an oil-burning system, says J. H. Dodge in the Coal Age. This is the conclusion reached following an investigation of the subject made by the Federal Trade Information Service at the behest of the owners of a plant contemplating the conversion of a coal-burning plant into an oil-burning one, should the prospects prove favorable. Probably the most striking single expression on the subject from an authoritative source is that of Dr. George Otis Smith, Director of the Geological Survey, who says: "Personally, I do not believe a barrel of fuel oil should be burned where coal is available and will serve the same purpose." This opinion seems to be concurred in by practically every person qualified to express an opinion.

In the course of its inquiry, the Federal Trade Information Service sought advice from one of the largest producing companies in the country. This company, though reputed to be dominant in the oil field and to be seeking business, reported that the fuel-oil situation is such that it does not feel itself to be in a position to take on new obligations for fuel oil. Other oil companies are in the same position, as evidenced by the difficulty of the Shipping Board and the Navy in obtaining bids on their requirements. Neither of these agencies has been able to attract bids for quantities large enough to cover their needs and those tenders made are at prices about three times former prices.

There is much talk of government commandeering of oil supplies in order to obtain sufficient oil for the Shipping Board and the Navy. The Department of the Interior is drawing the regulations under the oil-lands leasing bill is to avail itself of the option to take the government's royalties in oil rather than in cash.

Another large oil company—a refining concern—approached, reported: "That, since at the present time, due to a combination of circumstances, there is really a world shortage of available petroleum, we do not feel that it is right for any one to change from coal to oil consumption for steam-making purposes."

Perhaps the expressions of the companies which normally would be eager for new markets for their products are even more convincing than the reports of government agencies on the subject, but the government experts are by no means lukewarm in their opinions as to the advisability of abandoning coal for fuel oil.

"It should be realized," says the Geological Survey, "that for a number of years the domestic production of petroleum has been insufficient for the demands, and importations, chiefly from Mexico, have steadily increased since 1912. In 1919 imports of crude oil into the United States amounted to more than 52,000,000 barrels. The obtaining of sufficient supplies of fuel oil to meet future demands for the Navy, the merchant marine and for general industrial use is causing much concern. Students of the situation from the engineering point of view believe that at prevailing prices coal is the more economical fuel. Experiments with the two fuels at prevailing prices result in reported conclusions that fuel costs about three times as much as coal for the same efficiency. While oil has some advantages from the point of transportation and storage, still its fugitive quality and its susceptibility to accidental destruction by fire is such that they nearly balance the advantages."

Opinions differ as to the probability of enlarged oil production. Some scientists believe we are approaching maximum production while others feel that the stores of petroleum are practically unlimited. The appearance of salt water in so many Mexican wells and also in many in this country, has been a discouraging element. On the other hand, new and improved methods of production and handling and, above all, improved measures for the prevention of waste, an item which in the past has been stupendous, have bettered the outlook.

One source of alarm to oil men and consumers is the circumstance that oil reserves apparently are getting out of American control. Foreign countries—principally Great Britain and Holland—have cornered vast reserve supplies of oil in all parts of the world, whereas the United States has scarcely made a move to obtain preference anywhere.

The seriousness of the situation has been pointed out by the Navy Department, the Geological Survey, the Bureau of Mines and other well informed agencies.

Upon all these questions turns the advisability of the adoption by American industry of fuel oil in place of coal. Vastly increased oil production and the gaining of control over extensive petroleum reserves might very conceivably bring the price of fuel oil down to a point where it would prove more economical than coal, but the best information available is that coal, rather than fuel oil, today is the most available industrial fuel and is likely to remain so for some time.

WARNING

TO GAS CONSUMERS.

Due to the necessity of lowering and changing the location of our 12-inch main, transporting line from West Virginia at points where new state roads are being built near Mason town and Revere, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, the gas supply from West Virginia will be shut off at 1:00 o'clock, Sunday afternoon, May 23rd, 1920.

We will endeavor to have the work completed and the gas supply from West Virginia turned back into the line by not later than 5:00 o'clock.

While this work is being done, we shall be compelled to rely upon pressure stored in our lines north of Mason town and Revere, and upon a limited production from some of our own wells.

Therefore, while this work is being done, the gas supply will be very limited, and consumers are requested to use as little gas as possible.

Domestic consumers who will leave their homes for the day are warned to shut off the gas.

The gas supply to factories, public buildings and stores should be shut off after business hours Saturday night, or early Sunday morning.

The offices of the Fayette County Gas company will be open, Sunday afternoon, to give information concerning the work on the line and the resumption of the gas supply. Fayette County Gas company—Adv.
